
ASIFA Northwest is the Pacific Northwest's foremost organization for the animation community. Members include animators, filmmakers, students, teachers and fans as well as affiliated professionals such as voice-over actors, composers, puppeteers, illustrators and cartoonists.

The mission of ASIFA Northwest is to promote the art of animation and foster the development of the animation industry in the Pacific Northwest, including Oregon, Washington, and Western B.C. Canada.

Founded in 1988, ASIFA-NW is one of eight U.S. chapters of the International Animated Film Association, ASIFA, which was established in France in 1960.

The Northwest has a rich history and vibrant network of experimental and independent animation, as well as commercial production in the areas of stop-motion, computer graphics visualization, interactive and video game animation.
